Hello Reader,

This is YOUR reading log, so feel free to personalize it with drawings and doodles in the Draw Something section and don't forget to fill out the reading log everyday to keep track of your reading goals.

If you come across a challenging word, write it down in the Challenging Words section and look it up in the dictionary to find its meaning.

You may also write down a list of books that you want on the Book Wish List page so people know what to get you for your birthday

But most of all...Have Fun!!!
